

Bright Ideas: Ice Skating

Playing outside in the winter is a great time to work on skills with children of all ages. Ice skating is a great activity that can help develop balance, strength, coordination and motor planning.

If your child can already skate well, try developing an obstacle course, or a planned route around features on the ice.

Just don't forget a helmet when you're skating and - a hot chocolate when you head back inside!

